2002 HOUSING ELEMENT ADDENDUM

The Addendum to the Housing Element is not included in the Table of Contents because it is placed before the Table of Contents. The Housing Element Addendum contains comments from HCD and the city's responses to the comments. Some of the Housing Element tables, facts and figures were updated, deleted or revised in the Addendum. It is recommended that the Addendum be consulted first while using this document. The Addendum does not negate facts and figures in the Housing Element, rather provided further clarifications.
