

Save the Date!

Yolo County Child Development Conference

March 24, 2012

Keynote Presenter

Ronald Mah, M.A., M.F.T

Ronald Mah, an educator and licensed marriage and family therapist, has worked in early childhood education for 16 years. A credentialed elementary and secondary teacher, he is the author of Difficult Behavior in Early Childhood and The One-Minute Temper Tantrum Solution. Mah has DVDs on child development and behavior and has been involved in community and high school mental health clinics, severe emotional disturbance, at-risk youth, welfare-to-work, and Head Start programs. A graduate college instructor and Board of Directors member of the California Association of Marriage and Family Therapists and of the California Kindergarten Association, Mah combines concepts, principles, and philosophy with practical techniques and guidelines for effective and productive results. Mah has a psychotherapy practice in San Leandro, California where he works with children, teens, adults, couples, and families.

<http://www.ronaldmah.com>

Are you interested in presenting a workshop?

We are seeking workshop presentations on a variety of topics such as:

Administration, Challenging Behaviors, Child Development, Children with Special Needs, Curriculum, Diversity, Family Child Care, Infant/Toddler, Play, Kindergarten Readiness, Professional Development, Program Quality, School-Age, Science, and Social Emotional Development.

For additional information, contact Child Care Services at (530) 757-5695 and ask for the Conference Coordinator.