Dear Colleague:

The 2012 Yolo County Child Development Conference is scheduled for Saturday, March 24, 2012. This conference offers presenters and attendees smaller, more personal, discussion style workshops. Last year we had a huge success with over 300 participants. The Conference is an all day event with 3 different workshop tracks. Workshops cover a variety of topics, from arts and craft ideas to child development. Topics of interest are geared towards center staff, family child care providers, teachers, parents, students and/or community members.

If you are interested in presenting a workshop(s), please complete the enclosed workshop proposal form and return it as soon as possible. All submissions will be reviewed and potential presenters will be notified.

Send your completed packet to: Rosssana Vigil

Sincerely,
