Eligibility:

The Juried Art Show is open to all Yolo County artists ages 16 and older.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

- Artists may submit a maximum of two entries.
- An entry form must be attached to all entries. Extra copies of the attached form will be available during the drop-off times.
- Work must be original and must have been completed within the last two years.
- Artwork may be in any medium, but total dimensions must not exceed 12" x 12" x 12".
- 2D work must be ready to hang. If work is framed, the art and frame combined must not exceed 12" x 12".
- Framed work must be pre-wired (no saw tooth hangers).
- 3D work must be ready to display. Art and any support exclusive of pedestal must not exceed the total 12" x 12" x 12" dimensions.
- Work shown previously in the Small Works Competition is ineligible.

Entry Fees:

$10 per piece at time of submission. All fees will be used for awards and expenses related to the exhibition. Checks to "City of Davis" are preferred, but cash will be accepted. Fees are non-refundable.

Merit Awards:

Cash awards will be given out at the discretion of the juror.

Juror:

Stephen Giannetti holds a BA from UC Davis, an MFA from UC Irvine, and did intensive post-graduate work at the prestigious Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture in Maine.

A resident of Davis, his commissions include works for the City of Davis Police Dept., Dr. Elias & Dr. Newman in New York, and the Hotel Seneyan in Jakarta, Indonesia.

Solo and group exhibitions have included museums and galleries in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Irvine, Houston, Davis, Sacramento, Oakland and other cities. A major collector in Singapore owns approximately ¼ of his work. His newest show opens July 11 at the Marx & Zavattero Gallery in San Francisco.
