SAFE DRIVING SELF EXAM

One of the most popular features of last month's Transportation Expo was the AAA Roadwise Review. It's an easy, 8-part computer self-assessment of driving skills. If you missed your chance to go through this self-assessment, now's the time to sign up. We have several dates when a volunteer will be here to help you with the program. It takes about 45 minutes, and you'll leave with a better sense of where your skills are sharp, and where they might need a bit of work. Call 757-5696 to make an appointment for either October 10 or November 14.

TRANSPORTATION INFO

Exhibitors at last month's Transportation Expo brought a treasure trove of materials that are now available at the senior center. Drop by for updated bus schedules for Unitrans, YoloBus, and the UCD Medical Center shuttle. The new City of Davis Bicycle map is also here, along with materials from Amtrak. For more information about transportation resources, contact Lisa at 757-5696.
