Which area of recognition is this individual being nominated for?

Please check one:

COMMUNITY SERVICE: This recognition is given to an individual who has given significant service to their community, peers, and/or school.

PERSONAL CHALLENGE: This recognition is given to an individual who has overcome a significant challenge.

The Community Services Program Coordinator responsible for the coordination of the Golden Heart Awards, and a panel of impartial judges will be the only persons allowed to review the full content of the nomination forms. Recommendations on final award honorees will be made by the judging panel, however, the final selection of award winners are approved by the City Council. All nominees will be recognized as either an honoree or a recipient when the Golden Heart awards are presented at a future City Council meeting. Information disclosed at the Award Ceremony will be prepared by the Program Coordinator, and must be pre-approved by the nominee's parent/guardian prior to publication or distribution.

On the back and/or on an additional paper, please answer the following questions in a nomination essay (please be as detailed as possible):

Why do you believe this individual should be recognized with the Golden Heart Award? (Please include character traits, values, specific examples that you feel illustrate the individual's merit.)

Community Services Nominees: What community service work has been accomplished? Please describe the longevity of the work, the degree of service to the community, and the amount of personal investment in the community service projects (s).

Personal Challenge Nominees: What is the severity of the challenge? What efforts have been made to overcome the challenge? Also describe the general view of life of the nominee and the longevity of his/her challenge.
