

Through the Years at Historic City Hall

Historic City Hall at 226 F Street has been an anchor in the core area since it first opened in 1938. This summer, it will take on a new look when the facility will reopen as a restaurant.

1944

Davis City Hall and Fire Department, 1944. This photo is from the Third Street side and shows the garage bays that once housed fire trucks. (Eastman B-2118, Special Collections, University of California Library, Davis)

Fire Hall, Davis, Calif. JH EASTMAN B-2118

1953

Davis City Hall, 1953. This photo is looking east from F Street. City offices remained in the building until moving to 23 Russell Boulevard in 1981. (Eastman B-8006, Special Collections, University of California Library, Davis)

2005

Under construction. The "Bistro 33" restaurant plans to open during the summer of 2005.

The Davis Police Department presents
Second Annual Public Safety Day
 Saturday, May 14th, 2005
 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
 Police Department Headquarters
 2600 Fifth Street

- Free admission
- Free parking

■ Exciting public safety programs, displays and demonstrations including: fire trucks, police cars, rescue helicopter, underwater dive team, K-9 and S.W.A.T. team.

- Car seat safety inspections (11 a.m. - 2 p.m.)
- "Kidprint" (picture and ID booth)
- Bike helmet inspections
- "McGruff" the crime dog

- Tours of the Davis Police Dept.
- Dunk-a-Cop
- Balloons
- Face Painting
- Refreshments will be available
- Bounce house
- Plus a special drawing with over 40 great prizes!

For more information, call (530) 747-5400 or visit www.city.davis.ca.us/police/psd.cfm

A to Z Guide to Services in the City of Davis

If you haven't already received it, pick up the latest free edition of the "A to Z Guide" at city hall or at other city facilities. The Guide can also be downloaded from the cityofdavis.org website where it is continually updated.

The "A to Z Guide" provides a quick reference for general City of Davis information plus referral information for other agencies such as the county government, school and health care providers. Selected community nonprofit organizations are also listed.

