Food and living expenses included

$410-605 Food + All Utilities + Internet

The best value in Davis

Pacifico Coop keeps costs low because our members work together to keep it that way: we work for people, not for profits. Members get to vote on decisions in the coop, and work together to have the community they want to see. Our coop is operated for students, by students. Stop giving your money to landlords, and come check us out!

Members pay an average of $510 per month for rent and all food and utility costs... compared to over $1,000 per month to live in the dorms!

Pacifico's location is an excellent fit for the needs of students. Just a mile from campus, and connected by the Putah Creek Bike Trail, members can easily get to class, or head downtown.

Pacifico has several acres of grass, gardens and parking, all looking out over the greenbelt.
