

RAINBOW CITY is a truly unique play area. Funded and built with donations and energy from community members, the rambling wooden structure includes a castle maze, locomotive, tree house and more to let young imaginations run free.

SLIDE HILL PARK got its name from the large concrete slide at the northwest corner of the park. This popular slide gives you a thrilling ride from top to bottom. Most riders bring a large piece of cardboard to ride on. The park also has two play structures, a reservable picnic area and a pool.

LET'S PLAY!

A GUIDE TO DAVIS PLAYGROUNDS

OXFORD CIRCLE PARK features a one-of-a-kind net play structure, which combines geometric forms with climbing challenges. Many play possibilities exist. Is it a rocketship, a giant spider web or a sailing ship? Oxford Circle Park is also home to the city's nine-hole Disc Golf Course.

You can do lots of things at CHESTNUT PARK. Not only are there play areas for kids of all ages, this park has basketball and tennis courts, plus a large grass area to accommodate almost any sport!

ATLANTIS PARK, otherwise known as Pirate Park, is a great place to play. The pirate ship will guide you through many exciting adventures. You'll never know where you may wash ashore.

Parks & greenbelt play areas

- Elementary play area with tot area
- Elementary play area without tot area
- Tot area only
- No elementary or tot play areas