Oakland Man Beaten for Wallet and Cell Phone Davis PD Case 11-4088

On 10-25-2011 at 4:30pm, Davis Police Officers were dispatched to the area of Hwy 113 and Covell Blvd. for a fight between 3 males. The subjects subsequently ran across Covell Blvd. and ended up in the 1500 Shasta apartment complex. Upon arrival, officers found the 20 year old victim unconscious from a head injury on the south side of 1500 Shasta. He was rushed to the UCD Medical Center in Sacramento for treatment and is recovering from his injuries.

The 20 yr old male victim is an Oakland resident who claimed he was visiting Davis. According to the victim, he was approached by two males while walking on the north side of Covell Blvd. by Hwy 113. The suspects demanded the victim's cell phone and money. When the victim tried to escape, the suspects chased him into the apartment complex at 1500 Shasta. The victim claimed he was beaten and hit in the head with a club-like weapon.

The two suspects are still outstanding and are described as African American males in their late teens to early twenties. Both were wearing white baggy t-shirts, and one was wearing a dark colored baseball cap. Both suspects were approximately 6-00 feet in height with a medium build. The suspects took the victim's cell phone, wallet, and an undisclosed amount of cash. Anyone with information about this case is encouraged to contact the Davis Police Department at 530-747-5400.
