Do you know of a business, non-profit or individual that has gone above and beyond to improve the environmental quality of life in and around Davis?

Someone who is setting an example of how to conduct business, set up their home environment, and/or live their daily lives in a manner that encourages sustainability and harmony with nature?

Nominate them for the Sixteenth Annual Environmental Recognition Award!

Each year the City of Davis recognizes the contributions of an individual, a business, and a non-profit organization toward improving the environmental quality of life in and around the City of Davis.

Award recipients are selected by the City's Natural Resources Commission. An awards presentation will be held at the City Council meeting on April 20, 2009.

Selection Criteria

- Nominee's actions/achievements address a current environmental concern.
- Nominee has established a record of achievements or actions benefiting the environment.
- Nominee's actions/achievements show a commitment to continued effort long term.
- Other factors may include:
 - ✓ creative implementation of an innovative project/program,
 - ✓ development of a model project/program.
