City of Davis Waste Equipment Rental Agreement

This Agreement is between the person, business or non-profit representative signing it and the City of Davis Recycling Program. You understand that these Terms will apply to each piece of Waste Equipment you are borrowing.

By signing this form:

- A. You acknowledge that your event takes place within Davis city limits.
- B. You acknowledge that the Waste Equipment is the property of the City of Davis and must be returned as specified above.
- C. You acknowledge that you are capable of picking up, setting up, taking down, ensuring that the waste materials are recycled, composted and/or landfilled as required by City Municipal Code 32.01.065, and returning the Waste Equipment as is required in the terms.
- D. You acknowledge that you are 18 years or older and that you are assuming responsibility for the Waste Equipment that you are renting.
- E. You agree to return the Waste Equipment to us in the same condition you received it/them, ordinary wear and tear accepted, on the date and at the time specified by you at the time of reservation. You may not return Waste Equipment after hours when the Public Works Utilities and Operations Department is closed.
- F. If you wish to extend the date and/or time of a rental you must contact the Public Works Utilities and Operations Department to request an extension before your return date. The City may or may not grant an extension or could decline to rent it for the entire requested period by its sole discretion.
- G. The City may repossess the Waste Equipment anytime if it/they are found damaged, mistreated, or being used to violate the law or this Agreement, or appear(s) to be abandoned. We may also repossess Waste Equipment anytime we discover you made a misrepresentation to obtain the Waste Equipment. You agree that we need not notify you in advance.
- H. Certain uses of the Waste Equipment and other activities you or a representative may do, or fail to do, may violate this Agreement.

I have read and agree to the terms and condition listed above
