

CANDIDATE STATEMENT

JOSH CHAPMAN

Age: 40

Occupation: Small Business Owner

I am a husband, father, small business owner, coach, educator, and volunteer. My wife Athena and I live in South Davis with our 2 boys, Owen (11) and Quentin (9) who both attend Marguerite Montgomery Elementary School. I am running for City Council because I want to lead Davis in making decisions based on the principles of community, diversity, sustainability, and inclusivity.

Education/Experience

- MA in Education- Equity and Social Justice in Education
- BS in Small Business Management
- Local Small Business Owner
- Youth Sports Coach and Volunteer
- Past President Davis Downtown Business Association Board of Directors
- Served on Downtown Davis Plan Advisory Committee (DPAC)
- Former AmeriCorps Volunteer
- Former Teacher

My experience as a teacher, community leader, and volunteer combined with knowledge of what it takes to run a small business in our community puts me in a unique position to build consensus around policies that will help Davis thrive with a commitment to support and value the perspectives of all members of our community. I will work hard to earn your vote on November 3rd. Visit www.chapman4citycouncil.com for more information.
