INITIAL(S)	RULES AND REGULATIONS
	It is unlawful for any person to provide or permit any entertainment that is open to the public without an Entertainment Permit unless exempt pursuant to Davis Municipal Code Section 11.01.030.
	Fees are non-refundable . Expenditures for remodeling, purchasing equipment, booking entertainment, or entering into agreements or leases prior to approval is solely at the applicant(s) risk.
	Before an application is deemed complete, staff will inspect the premises for life safety and zoning code compliance. Any changes from the last building and/or planning approved permits(s) in use, occupancy, floor plan, zoning or occupancy may require submittal/approval of new plans and permits. Inspection or comments by staff do not constitute approval of the application.
	In issuing permit, the Police Chief may impose conditions relating the operation of the entertainment establishment. These conditions may include but not be limited to: days, hours, and location; number and age of persons allowed; and minimum number of security guards required.

		If approved, permits and conditions must be displayed in a conspicuous place in the entertainment establishment.
		Permits are the property of the city and may not be transferred to another person or location.
		Issuance of permit and related conditions must be consistent with federal, state, and local laws, rules, and regulations including but not limited to State of California Alcohol Beverage Control licenses and conditions. If applicable, a copy of the current business' ABC license and conditions must be provided before application is deemed complete.
		A responsible person as defined by Davis Municipal Code Section 11.01.020 (Definitions) must be present in the establishment when it is open and offering entertainment.
		I understand that this is only an application and not a guaranteed permit and that it is unlawful to provide entertainment without an entertainment permit.
		I hereby attest that the information contained is true and correct. I agree that if any information in the application is found to be false, the application may be denied by the Police Chief and, if permit has been issued, permit may be revoked by Police Chief.
